

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE

Recovery Tools & Training

Who should attend?

Anyone dedicated to helping rebuild homes and lives: long-term recovery leadership, church leaders, community leaders, social service organizations, caseworkers and others.

What's covered?

Organizing for recovery: strategic planning, administration, finance and committees
Managing cases
Managing volunteers
Managing rebuilding
Resource development & donations

Times, Dates, Locations

The training schedule will be the same on both days.

July 31, 2008, 9:00 am to 4:30 pm
Live at Columbus Learning Center
4555 Central Avenue, Suite 2100
Columbus, IN 47203

August 1, 2008, 9:00 am to 4:30 pm
Live at Ivy Tech Community College
7999 U.S. Highway 41 South
Terre Haute, IN 47802-4898

For local information on long-term recovery committee training on July 31 and/or Aug. 1 go to: www.invoad.org/CWStraining/

Leadership will include: Christian Reformed World Relief Committee, Church World Service, Coordinated Assistance Network, FEMA, Indiana Association of United Ways, INVOAD, Lutheran Disaster Response, Purdue Extension, United Methodist Committee on Relief, and other partners